FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suncoast Humane Society announced today that they will host an NBCUniversal Owned Television Stations’ Clear the Shelters adoption drive this Saturday, July 23. Suncoast Humane Society will offer the public reduced adoption fees of only $10.00 for all animals adopted that day, as part of the nationwide Clear the Shelters initiative that seeks to find new homes for homeless pets.

Executive Director Phil Snyder says, “We are very excited to be participating in this national event. It is our hope that each of our adoptable pets finds their new home this Saturday! We will have a full staff of experienced Adoption Specialists and volunteers on hand to help make sure the perfect pet picks you!”

This year’s Clear the Shelters event comes after last year’s highly successful inaugural effort, which resulting in nearly 20,000 pets finding new homes through an unprecedented partnership between the NBCUniversal Owned Television Stations and hundreds of animal shelters located all across the country and in Puerto Rico. The nationwide day of action literally emptied dozens of animal shelters across the country and inspired local communities to take action and open their homes to animals in need.

Suncoast Humane Society has been serving animals and people since 1971. Founded as Englewood Animal Aid Society, the organization’s services and programs were soon challenged to meet the demands placed on them by the pet over-population crises.

Expansions to their facility in Englewood during the 1980s and 1990s helped the Society to more effectively provide for a growing service area. To reflect the changes, the organization became Suncoast Humane Society. Today their service area includes Charlotte County, most of Sarasota County, and the Boca Grande portion of Lee County, a total of over 450 square miles.
