“Clear the Shelters” Day Helped Many Find New Homes

On Saturday, July 23, Suncoast Humane Society participated in the national effort to Clear the Shelters, organized by NBCUniversal. They offered the public reduced adoption fees of only $10.00 for all animals and 13 pets found their new families! The hard work of Suncoast Humane Society is never finished though and there are still many more pets that need to find their forever home! If you are looking to add a new member to your family, visit their adoptable pets at www.humane.org.

As part of the nationwide Clear the Shelters initiative that seeks to find new homes for homeless pets. This year’s Clear the Shelters event comes after last year’s highly successful inaugural effort, which resulted in nearly 20,000 pets finding new homes through an unprecedented partnership between the NBCUniversal Owned Television Stations and hundreds of animal shelters located all across the country and in Puerto Rico. The nationwide day of action literally emptied dozens of animal shelters across the country and inspired local communities to take action and open their homes to animals in need.

Suncoast Humane Society has been serving animals and people since 1971. Founded as Englewood Animal Aid Society, the organization’s services and programs were soon challenged to meet the demands placed on them by the pet over-population crises.

Expansions to their facility in Englewood during the 1980s and 1990s helped the Society to more effectively provide for a growing service area. To reflect the changes, the organization became Suncoast Humane Society. Today their service area includes Charlotte County, most of Sarasota County, and the Boca Grande portion of Lee County, a total of over 450 square miles.
