Sponsors Needed: Raising Funds for Homeless and Neglected Animals

Your help will make a difference!

Suncoast Humane Society is seeking local business and group sponsorships to support their upcoming musical variety dinner show, The King & His Queens. This event is already nearly sold out and will be held on Saturday, October 5, at the Englewood Event Center located at 3069 S. McCall Rd, Englewood, Florida.

The humane society’s great success of ticket sales encouraged enhancements to some sponsorship opportunities and now offer several reserved seats to the show and dinner. In addition to appealing recognitions, $1,000 Diamond Ring Sponsorship includes 6 reserved seats, and the $500 Show Stopper Sponsorship includes 4 reserved seats. A new $100 Honoring Sponsorship was created for those who want to support the cause, but may not be able to attend. Full sponsorship details are available online at www.humane.org. For questions and creative ideas please call Suncoast Humane Society at 941-474-7884 ext. 405.

Sponsors of the event become a critical part of Suncoast Humane Society’s mission to reduce the number of homeless animals and improve the quality of life. Any and all contributions help animals find loving homes, teach children compassion toward animals and provide valuable programs and services to the people and pets of our communities. Donations ensure that your local humane society can continue to be a safe refuge for thousands of lost, abandoned, and abused animals year after year.

Long-time donors Rich “Big Daddy” and Markie Harms have shown their love for Suncoast Humane Society’s mission once again through a Royal Flush Title Sponsorship and said they look forward to an exciting evening of fun. Media Sponsor, Harbor Style Magazine, shared: “Many of us here at Harbor Style Magazine are big fans of animals. We are happy to support Suncoast Humane Society in this event and look forward to this exciting musical dinner show.”

Although this event is the 3rd annual of its kind for Suncoast Humane Society, this year’s musical show is presented on a much larger scale. 300 guests will enjoy a sit down three-course dinner shortly before the exiting performance by Tampa’s Keith Coleman with tributes to Elvis and Johnny Cash. Tributes to Dolly Parton, June Carter, and Patsy Cline will be performed by Keith’s co-star spouse, Ruby. Coleman stated: “I am a big supporter of all animals. What better way to help animals than to support the Humane Society.”

The thrilling drag show performed by Naple’s Bambusa Babes returns once again to mesmerize the audience in support of the homeless animals. Limited seats are available for reservation at www.humane.org at $50 per person. Guests must be 18 to enter and 21 to drink. The event will feature a cash bar, a 50/50 raffle and an epic spirit raffle. This fundraising event directly benefits the programs, services and homeless animals of Suncoast Humane Society.

Suncoast Humane Society has served animals and people as a regional humane society since 1971. Operating one of Florida’s few “open admissions” animal shelters, no animal in need is ever turned away, regardless of health, temperament, breed age or size. Reaching over 450 square miles and 11 communities, the organization’s services reach Charlotte and Sarasota Counties, Boca Grande, and beyond. These programs and services are made possible solely by individual donations, wills and bequests, and limited grants from foundations. No funding is received from national or local humane groups, state or federal government. For more information about the organization, please contact Suncoast Humane Society at 941-474-7884, visit www.humane.org, or stop by their Animal Care Center at 6781 San Casa Drive, Englewood FL 34224.
