Help Homeless Cats and Dogs Get Rescued for the Pawlidays

ENGLEWOOD, FLORIDA - DECEMBER 13, 2019: Suncoast Humane Society announces holiday adoption special for all cats and dogs.

WHAT: “Rescued for the Pawlidays” adoption special offers a $20 discount on all adoption fees for canines and felines: dogs, puppies, cats, and kittens can be adopted for $75, senior adopters (65+ years) can adopt a dog/cat for $55, senior pets (7+ years) can be adopted for $55, senior adopters can adopt a senior pet for $30, and pets with seniority (at the shelter for 6+ months) can be adopted for just $5. Additional inoculations might apply. County license/tag and rabies vaccination fees are not included.

WHEN: December 16 - December 31, 2019

WHERE: Suncoast Humane Society's Animal Care Center and 6 satellite adoption centers: Petco (Port Charlotte and North Venice), Pet Supermarket (Englewood, North Port, Venice and South Venice)

WHY: Suncoast Humane Society is one of the many shelters across the nation currently experiencing a high volume of intakes, especially those that are cats. Interim Co-Executive Director, Leah Cornish, states: “This adoption special will help to find many great homes for cats and dogs in our care. A new pet requires a lot of attention. We don’t recommend surprising someone with a pet as a gift. Those who are ready to open their hearts and homes to a new pet are encouraged to adopt early to help their new companion get settled in before the holidays.”
